

CERTIFICATE OF QUALIFICATION

Denmark, Russia

For NIGMATULLINA Tanzilja Altafovna, Doctor of Political Sciences,
Director of the Bashkir Institute of Social Technologies (branch) Educational Institution of Trade Unions of Higher Education Academy of Labor and Social relations

The member of International Teachers' Association took part in prolonged distant communication course for teachers and managers in educational sphere from different countries on professional, cultural and tutoring matters on the base of ITA Centre of Educational and Scientific research in Teaching, Science and Training methods.

The communication of the professionals is to certify skills of the participant NIGMATULLINA T.A. in the professional development in cross-cultural sphere in effective innovative and traditional theory and practice of teaching;

- In international technology for intellectual and professional realization of personality in the world of a sustainable development;
- Upbringing of those taught in the wide system of education through school, college, University on the base of UNESCO goals in a family and society;
- High skills in teaching foreign linguistic independence of children and adults;
- High skills in information technologies in accordance with modern demands to specialist of the international community;
- Educational common standards in connection with UNESCO values.

On behalf on the Chair of the Danish Board Teacher Jytte Svendsen and the members of International ITA's committee Sue Howard, Michael Hubert, Brigitte Muller, Hanne Smidh
– President of International Teachers' Association, (ITA)
Ph.Dr., Associate Professor Azarenkova M.

CERTIFICATE OF QUALIFICATION

Denmark, Russia

For VELTS Rachil Yakovlevna, Candidate of Philological Sciences,
Associate Professor, Head of the Department of Humanities and Trade
Union Movement

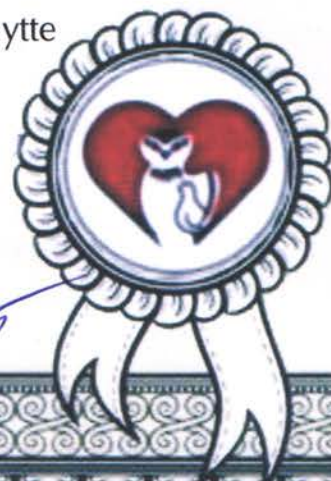

The member of International Teachers' Association took part in prolonged distant communication course for teachers and managers in educational sphere from different countries on professional, cultural and tutoring matters on the base of ITA Centre of Educational and Scientific research in Teaching, Science and Training methods.

The communication of the professionals is to certify skills of the participant VELTS R.Y. in the professional development in cross-cultural sphere in effective innovative and traditional theory and practice of teaching;

- In international technology for intellectual and professional realization of personality in the world of a sustainable development;
- Upbringing of those taught in the wide system of education through school, college, University on the base of UNESCO goals in a family and society;
- High skills in teaching foreign linguistic independence of children and adults;
- High skills in information technologies in accordance with modern demands to specialist of the international community;
- Educational common standards in connection with UNESCO values.

On behalf on the Chair of the Danish Board Teacher Jytte Svendsen and the members of International ITA's committee Sue Howard, Michael Hubert, Brigitte Muller, Hanne Smith – President of International Teachers' Association, (ITA) Ph.Dr., Associate Professor Azarova M.

CERTIFICATE OF QUALIFICATION

Denmark, Russia

For Galimova Olga Vladimirovna, Candidate of Philological Sciences,
Associate Professor of the Department of Humanities and Trade
Union Movement

The member of International Teachers' Association took part in prolonged distant communication course for teachers and managers in educational sphere from different countries on professional, cultural and tutoring matters on the base of ITA Centre of Educational and Scientific research in Teaching, Science and Training methods.

The communication of the professionals is to certify skills of the participant Galimova O.V. in the professional development in cross-cultural sphere in effective innovative and traditional theory and practice of teaching;

- In international technology for intellectual and professional realization of personality in the world of a sustainable development;
- Upbringing of those taught in the wide system of education through school, college, University on the base of UNESCO goals in a family and society;
- High skills in teaching foreign linguistic independence of children and adults;
- High skills in information technologies in accordance with modern demands to specialist of the international community;
- Educational common standards in connection with UNESCO values.

On behalf on the Chair of the Danish Board Teacher Jytte Svendsen and the members of International ITA's committee Sue Howard, Michael Hubert, Brigitte Muller, Hanne Smith
– President of International Teachers Association, (ITA)
Ph.Dr., Associate Professor Azargalova M.

